Free to live free to love, free to get up Free to get out and get up and move on, I'm Free to live free to love free to get up Free to get out and get up and move on From all the pain, all the times, I ever cried For those who spoke lies I'm gonna make it From all the days, all the rage I felt inside I know I'm still alive not forsaken

I used to want it so bad, I was so mad Why can't I have a life like he has, autographs Record tracks tour the globe and rap It was a dream that seemed out of my grasp or wouldn't last Months passed, spent cash, all that I had Had to borrow just to stay at my pad, and no gas When dreams turn bitter and I know I'm not a quitter I repaint the picture and start with something clearer I know what it's like yo, to work so hard, watch it fall apart After leaving your job God's got your back it's free at no charge Speak I'm free and believe with your heart

Free to live free to love, free to get up Free to get out and get up and move on, I'm Free to live free to love free to get up Free to get out and get up and move on From all the pain, all the times, I ever cried For those who spoke lies I'm gonna make it From all the days, all the rage I felt inside I know I'm still alive not forsaken

My road was long I choked and coughed I froze and lost, I brushed it off I wrote to God, Hear me I got a problem here, can't you see I'm sinking I'm shrinking, I'm tripping, slipping, searching for some wisdom Since time is ticking I've been thinking I'm a sleeping victim Incline my ear listen I was blind I'm here to switch it This is when I call to you I'm crawling balling out Falling up to walk with you I'm here to put it down Anything I don't know, download to my soul Let me be free so I can free those in pot wholes Let me sleep breezy like the beaches in Taho Helped me see clearly you perform the impossible

Free to live free to love, free to get up Free to get out and get up and move on, I'm Free to live free to love free to get up Free to get out and get up and move on From all the pain, all the times, I ever cried For those who spoke lies I'm gonna make it From all the days, all the rage I felt inside I know I'm still alive not forsaken

I've been on and off, searching for a better job Hip hop gave me an out let to set it off My God saves I'm free to just sing a song I walk straight to goals as if my team won Like the pentagon free to drop a bigger bomb Figured my sisters and brothers they need a leader son Teeter tottered not wanting to bother Children need a father not just payment with dollars Home of the brave were known to rescue and save In a moment we change, we can't settle for slave Hold to the dream go big or go home Freedoms in the heart mind, body & soul
