Insomnia

Manafest

Spray my conscience with cologne
Cover up this heart of stone
Many secrets I ain't told
I'm afraid I'll be exposed
Gimme a million reasons
Minds in a million pieces
I'm not sleeping I've stopped eating
Insomniac but I'm still breathing

Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm a victim of the night time
All these issues that I try to hide
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm praying for a lifeline close my eyes

I wanna fall asleep, hide in these sheets
Every pill I take wakes me up from my dreams
Mind keeps rolling on and on
One eyed open insomnia

God forgive me of my sins
Saturate my soul in hymns
Emptiness I'm on a binge
Envious of all my friends
Why do I feel defeated
Why do I feel the weakest
Help me Jesus, what is freedom?
Anything to keep me sleeping

Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm a victim of the night time
All these issues that I try to hide
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I'm praying for a lifeline close my eyes

I wanna fall asleep, hide in these sheets
Every pill I take wakes me up from my dreams
Mind keeps rolling on and on
One eyed open insomnia

I wanna fall asleep, hide in these sheets
Every pill I take wakes me up from my dreams
Mind keeps rolling on and on
One eyed open insomnia

Father in heaven
I'm feeling restless
I need your presence
Weeks since I slept in
I've been reckless
Now I'm feeling breathless
I'm feeling restless
I need your presence oh

I wanna fall asleep, hide in these sheets
Every pill I take wakes me up from my dreams
Mind keeps rolling on and on

One eyed open insomnia

I wanna fall asleep, hide in these sheets
Every pill I take wakes me up from my dreams
Mind keeps rolling on and on
