Catching Up

Mando Diao

I'm catching up
I'm saving my time
For feelings I've hide
I don't need your help
Girl I'm fine
And I'm catching up

Yeah I'm catching up
I see the future
Shining bright
I don't need your smile
Girl I'm fine
And I'm catching up

I'm not gonna live my life the way I used to do
Ain't gonna cry no more. no
I just wanna get around and feel the way I do
And I'm catching up, catching up,
Catching up Yeah i'm catching up

I'm catching up
I've been on the ground far too long
I don't need advice
I'm riding high
And I'm catching up

You can't see through me and my mind
You can't see through me and my mind
You can't see through me
You can't see through me girl
I'm fine and I'm catching up

I'm not gonna live my life the way I used to do
Ain't gonna cry no more
I just want to get around and feel the way I do
And I'm catching up, catching up catching up
Yeah I'm catching up
