

Have you seen her face
She is covered up with grace
Some of us snows
This beauty today lord
I saw her walking by
Saw her shimmering light
I know what I'm now
It's a shadow of me babe

But it's so hard to see through you
You are so easy to love
Oh its so hard to defy you
But I just don't wanna know
No, I don't wanna know
That all that I become all that I haven't done
Could have saved me from falling
All my life for you
Morning until noon
Teardrops (out of the position)
Its so hard to be near you
You are so easy to love
Your so easy to love
But its all understood

Don't believe a thing you hear
She is mine for every
It's a chemistry thing
It's a tale for the angels
Now won't you be my open books
But close your eyes
No don't have a look
Everything is in here
All you ever wanted

it's so hard to see through you
your so easy to love
its so hard to defy you
But I just don't wanna know
I don't wanna know
That all that I've become all that I haven't

Could have saved me from falling
All my life for you
Morning until noon
Teardrops (out of the position)
Its so hard to be
Its so hard to see
Everything that I wanted
Folds me out of the hand
No one understand
Its my live with religion
Its so hard to see through you
No I just don't wanna know
That its all not the same

And all that I've ever done
All that I've said and done
Could it have saved me from falling
All my live for you
Morning until noon
Teardrops shout a position
Its so hard to see
Folds me out the hand
Its religion with breakfast
Its so hard to see through you
Oh Its so hard to see through you
Your so easy to love
Your so easy to love
