

Cold Lover's Waltz

Mandolin Orange

Lately I've been reeling
Cuz I can't shake this feeling
You always aimed at stealing my heart

And through the hours of turning
This thought around my yearning
For you has turned to burning
And now I am lost
In a cold lover's waltz

Just spinning round
On hollow ground
With a lost cause
In a cold lover's waltz

Parting ways reminds me
You'll never lie beside me
Without that twinge of guilty wondering

And as this town grows empty
This love that you have lent me
Is strong enough to keep me
Caught in the swing
Of a cold lover's waltz

Just spinning round
On hollow ground
With a lost cause
In a cold lover's waltz

All I ever wanted
Was to be to you what you are to me
Now she's the one that you call home
And I'm just the one you leave
In a cold lover's waltz

In a cold lover's waltz
Just spinning round
On hollow ground
With a lost cause
Cold lover's waltz
