

From Now On

Mandolin Orange

Don't wanna live out on the road
Just wanna be right by your side
We're the only ones I know
Who could hold me to that
There's an awful lonesome feeling
Concealed within our past
But the future holds my reasons
There'll be no more looking back
From now on

We were misfits in this game
Chased that old flame of desire
Living life with no sustain
Just two kids playing with fire
There's an awful lonesome feeling
Concealed within our past
Still the future holds my reasons
There'll be no more looking back
From now on

Is the only thing that matters anymore
Is the only thing that matters from now on
Is the only thing that matters.
Don't wanna live out on the road
Just wanna be right by your side
