

It comes a time when the real race
Closes the doors to the deepest rage
The only way to fight... search for key of light

Here knowledge is revealed
Along the emerald path unseen
Here bounds by fate... searching for your lord

C'mon...
I'm gonna hide you

C'mon...
Edom's ruling
Just screaming aloud!
Hail hail, fight fight

Stay with me all the days of my lives
Guide me lord each day and night
Embraced am I in love and dark magic

In this journey across the night
Let me flow inside your mind
Look through your eyes

And walk to your lord
