

Easy Target

Mandy Moore

Out in the light
Facing the wind
Got nothing to hide
Ready to begin
To begin, to begin again

A man's gotta fight
A girl's gotta win
A shift in the tide
This is the world we're living in

I'm out on my own
The easy target
Somewhere beyond the winning and losing
Heart on my sleeve
Right where the truth is
What else could I be
The easy target

A conscious choice
Yeah, it's one way to live
Through all of the noise
Going out on a limb
Out on a limb again

Say it isn't so
Then say that it is
How do I know
Where the trouble begins and ends?

I'm out on my own
The easy target
Somewhere beyond the winning and losing
Heart on my sleeve
Right where the truth is
What else could I be
The easy target

The nameless and the faceless, take their aim
I wonder if they notice, no one's listening

I'm out on my own
The easy target
Somewhere beyond the winning and losing
Heart on my sleeve
Right where the truth is
What else could I be
The easy target
