Every Light

Mandy Moore

I hear a lot about you
Much more than I'm hearing from
Stories that swirl around you
Like planets that orbit the sun

I dream my days around you
I cancelled all my plans
Time stands still without you
Or is it moving in ways we don't understand

Till the moment you're ready
I'll keep the champagne on ice
You'll know the house when you get here
'Cause I'll leave on every light

I talk a lot about you
Much more than I probably should
I guess I was always bound to
'Cause no conversation's felt so good

I think I see the future
It's written in your name
Wish it would get here sooner
And fit us both in the frame

Till the moment you're ready
I'll keep the champagne in ice
You'll know the house when you get here
'Cause I'll leave on every light

Till the moment you're ready
I'll keep the champagne in ice
You'll know the house when you get here
'Cause I'll leave on every light
