Feel Me

Mandy Moore

I remember the time that I was afraid to let go
'Til the day I met you

Yeah, yeah

Now everyday, I gotta let you know

I'm standing here right now
I'll never let you down
I'll give my everything
'Cause I want you to feel me
I opened up to you
I know your heart is true
I'd save myself for you
'Cause I want you to feel me

Mm, yeah

And I could see the difference in me
Even in the rain or sunshine
From now on, I promise not to let you go
You'll never be alone
My heart is now your own
You show so many words unspoken
Each and every day, I've gotta let you know

I'm standing here right now
I'll never let you down
I'll give my everything
'Cause I want you to feel me
I opened up to you
I know your heart is true
I'd save myself for you
'Cause I want you to feel me

Yeah, yeah, oh
Yeah, oh baby

If you know you're never alone, I'll be there right by your side
Finally, I've found someone to be there right in my life
It's gonna be you
I feel you, you feel me
We feelin', no
I want you, you want me
Want you... inside

The best that's in me, I wanna give it to you
And I wanna let it show
It feels so good, so good
To feel this way, this way
I want you to know, baby, feel me

I'm standing here right now
I'll never let you down
I'll give my everything
'Cause I want you to feel me
I opened up to you

I know your love is true
I'd save myself for you
'Cause I want you to feel me

I'm standing here right now
I'll never let you down
'Cause I want you to feel me
I opened up to you
I know your heart is true
I'd save myself for you
'Cause I want you to feel me

I'm standing here right now
I'll never let you down
'Cause I want you to feel me
I opened up to you
I know your heart is true
I'd save myself for you
'Cause I want you to feel me
