

I've Got This

Mandy Moore

Royal decision-making?
Hey, I was born to do it
Yeah, sure, I'm slightly faking
But there's not that much to it

Bring it on, I'm ready
'Cause I got this
I've got this
Just watch

Princess Rapunzel, may I present your most humble subjects!

He won't let my sheep graze next to his without a fight!

Hm...

How can I cut hair with this guy fiddling day and night?

Gosh!

Lately, half the city's overrun by cats and kitties

Eating everything in sight!

Right!

Pasture land is public
I decree you'll have to share
Earplugs will do wonders
You'll receive a royal pair
Henceforth, it is written
We'll feed every cat and kitten
Here within the palace square
Fair?

Folks, the line starts there!

She's got a knack for reigning
So far, she's holding steady
But folks are still complaining
So let's not throw confetti
Nonetheless, I guess our girl has got this
She's got this
No prob

Is that the last one?

Well, not exactly, your highness!

Since we shared the pasture we can't tell whose sheep are whose!

Oops!

I can't hear my customers and ruin all their dos!

Sorry!

Now the cats are quiet

But the rats are running riot
Up and down the avenues!

No more interviews!

Gosh, what a huge disaster
And everybody knew it
I had one job to master
And I completely blew it

I was so darn certain that I got this
But I'm not this
Not yet...

Who would've thought how far from getting this I could get?
