

Just Maybe

Mandy Moore

There were so many sides to the both of us
We defied geometry
And we thought that it meant there was hope for us
As if hope is all we would need
But now we hang by a thread
We've been pulling on
To see if we could pull it off

Just maybe
We're all that we've got
And that's more than enough
To keep on dreaming
Just maybe
Then again, maybe not
But a maybe's enough
To keep on believing

We were told we were doomed from the start of us
By our friends and family
It's like no one could see the true spark of us
That's just for you and me
But now our moment in time
Is a moment of truth
And I don't know where it ends

Just maybe
We're all that we've got
And that's more than enough
To keep on dreaming
Just maybe
Then again, maybe not
But a maybe's enough
To keep on believing

Are we dangerous? (Are we dangerous?)
Are we medicine? (Are we medicine?)
Is it a little bit of both?

Just maybe
We're all that we've got
And that's more than enough
To keep on dreaming, oh-oh
Just maybe
Then again, maybe not
Oh, but a maybe's enough
To keep on believing
Yeah, a maybe's enough
To keep on believing
Yeah, a maybe's enough
To keep on dreaming
