Fallen

Månegarm

Barely awake, my body's weak
My senses almost numb
Scarred and torn, my sight's dim
Before my eyes this haze of grey
The blood runs cold
When my life starts to fade
A stench of death is in the air
Nothing is real except the pain I feel
The wine of the raven
Is buried in the soil… of Nerthus

Wounded and lonely
I'm accepting my fate
Woven to decide a warriors hate
A cold freezing breeze touches my skin
I'm to tired to even feel
The memories of life pass before my eyes
Memories of a life that I once had Although I know that my time has come
I struggle, try to stay awake

Left alone, all alone
I know my time has come
Left alone, all alone
I'm covered in blood,
all buried in blood
The sun no more shines
I enter the night
I finally close my eyes

Am I awake, the pain has left
My mind's at ease, free at last
There's nothing more,
all promises fulfilled
The river of the sword
Is the last thing I see

Left alone, all alone
I know my time has come
Left alone, all alone
I'm covered in blood,
buried in blood
The sun no more shines
I enter the night
I finally close my eyes

The ending is near
The hall of my fathers awaits me
I soon will be there
See me valkyries
Hear me, I'm ready to die

Left alone, all alone
The sun no more shines
I enter the night
I finally close my eyes
