

Aimlessly

Manic Drive

Aimlessly moving forward
Tripping backwards
Killing time
Woke up my appetite
For some more emptiness
As I starve
Climb back into my bubble
Safety cuts me
From my air supply
Glancing into the shadows
Of my actions
That keeps me inside

Bring me back to my knees
Where I was begging for my life
And take me back in your arms
As I lay dying for your love

Light up my useless matches
Desperate for a
Spark of light
Free me from my own cage
And give back my life
