

Nebulous

Manic Drive

I've seen your sin
I've seen you fall
I've seen you lie so much that you believed yourself
Do you find your bliss
In things like these?
Wandering around uselessly
Your time draws closer
And you're still waiting

You can't stay here in the darkness
Thinking about it
But your mind is nebulous
You can't see with your blindness
I choose to live with the righteous

I know that I have fallen too
But may my mistakes and follies be lessons to you
Why should I
Be more like you?
Have you seen yourself lately?
Your times draws closer
And you're still waiting
