

Operator

Manic Drive

I kinda miss our conversations
All our small talk's big expectations
I'm out of reach, it's unintended
Oh, how did we get disconnected?

Radio, coming in clear
Show me that you're out there
Radio, I need to hear you

I don't wanna wait, wait, wait, wait, wait
Another single day, 'nother single day
So I'm here and I'm calling
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)
Don't know what to say, say, say, say, say
But I've been listening with my heart wide open
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)

I don't wanna wait, wait, wait, wait, wait
Another single day, 'nother single day
So I'm here and I'm calling
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)
Don't know what to say, say, say, say, say
But I've been listening with my heart wide open
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)

I can't afford to lose you again
So I promise this time I'll pay attention
I'm so hung up, I didn't mean it
I know you will forget it
But even prodigal sons need forgiveness

Radio, coming in clear
Show me that you're out there
Radio, I need to hear you

I don't wanna wait, wait, wait, wait, wait
Another single day, 'nother single day
So I'm here and I'm calling
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)
Don't know what to say, say, say, say, say
But I've been listening with my heart wide open
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)

I don't wanna wait, wait, wait, wait, wait
Another single day, 'nother single day
So I'm here and I'm calling
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)
Don't know what to say, say, say, say, say
But I've been listening with my heart wide open
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)

I know that you're out there
I can feel it that you're out there
So I'm calling out
(Operator, connect my phone, I'm calling home, I'm calling home)
I know that you're out there
I can feel that you're out there

Oh, operator connect my phone, I'm
(I'm calling home, I'm calling home)

Radio, coming in clear, (ooh)
Show me that you're out there, (show me that you're out there)
Radio, I need to hear you, (oh I need to hear you)

Radio, coming in clear, (ooh)
Show me that you're out there, (show me that you're out there)
Radio, I need to hear you, (oh I need to hear you)

I don't wanna wait, wait, wait, wait, wait
Another single day, 'nother single day
So I'm here and I'm calling
(Radio, I need to hear you)
Operator connect my phone
I'm calling home, I'm calling home
But I've been listening with my heart wide open

Radio, coming in clear
Show me that you're out there
Radio, I need to hear you
