

Pinky Swear

Manic Drive

Oh no, we're learning how life goes
Feeling overwhelmed, while we run through these cycles
You won't know, what you mean to me so
You'll need to understand it's unimaginable

To the end of time and beyond it
To the end of time and beyond it
I'll be, I'll be there
I pinky, pinky swear

(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no army in Hell could stop me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no conditions with it honestly
(Straight up, straight up) A promise is a promise I intend to keep
Pinky pinky swear, pinky pinky swear me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no army in Hell could stop me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no conditions with it honestly
(Straight up, straight up) A promise is a promise I intend to keep
Pinky pinky swear, pinky pinky swear me

Oh no, sometimes we slip and fall
Scratched up and bruised from the fragments that life throws
Although, failure is possible
We'll be in this together, I promise until

To the end of time and beyond it
To the end of time and beyond it
I'll be, I'll be there
I pinky, pinky swear

(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no army in Hell could stop me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no conditions with it honestly
(Straight up, straight up) A promise is a promise I intend to keep
Pinky pinky swear, pinky pinky swear me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no army in Hell could stop me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no conditions with it honestly
(Straight up, straight up) A promise is a promise I intend to keep
Pinky pinky swear, pinky pinky swear me

Take your tiny hand and wrap it around my finger
How could something so small make me see the bigger picture?
Compassion everlasting, the Beginning and the End
And how finite emotions would pale in comparison
Imagine love so big, it spills over from the Heavens
Outside all galaxies and the seas of multi-dimensions
Love that defies time and makes it small in its presence
Love that defeats death, because of its' sheer existence

(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no army in Hell could stop me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no conditions with it honestly
(Straight up, straight up) A promise is a promise I intend to keep
Pinky pinky swear, pinky pinky swear me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no army in Hell could stop me
(Straight up, straight up) Straight up, no conditions with it honestly
(Straight up, straight up) A promise is a promise I intend to keep
Pinky pinky swear, pinky pinky swear me

To the end of time and beyond it

To the end of time and beyond it
I'll be, I'll be there
I pinky, pinky swear
