

Sugarcoated

Manic Drive

Ya, what's that noise?
Ya, I got a few questions for you
What's your secret? What you hiding?
Oh there's something called the truth

You got that archetype kinda life, building reactions
Got that New York kind of state of mind, with no satisfaction
Perfect white crooked smile and ghosts in the attic
Got that silver tongue, loaded gun, and bullets to match it
Tell me

What's your secret? What you hiding?
Oh there's something called the truth and I goin' find it
What's the story? Oh why you smiling?
Oh there's something called the truth, oh I'm begging you

Talk to me
Once in your life be real with me
Shh sugarcoated shh sugarcoated
Say something
Yummy plastic taste so sweet
Shh sugarcoated shh sugarcoated

You got them summer nights, highlights
Keep it dramatic
Spend your whole long life keepin' prestigious status
Oh koochie koo, so cute, keep up the image
Give me that gimme gimme attitude with all of the gimmicks

What's your secret? What you hiding?
Oh there's something called the truth and I goin' find it
What's the story? Oh why you smiling?
Oh there's something called the truth, oh I'm begging you

Talk to me
Once in your life be real with me
Shh sugarcoated shh sugarcoated
What's that noise?
Say something
Yummy plastic, taste so sweet
Shh sugarcoated, taste like candy
Shh sugarcoated, taste like yummy candy

Who's that man in the mirror it's you?
Who's that man in it talking to you?
No one else, by myself in this room
I guess it's safe to assume
I'd be lying if I'm honest with you
Compromised, so I'm bending the truth
Pardon me, I don't mean to be rude
But I got a few questions for you

What's your secret? What you hiding?
Oh there's something called the truth and I goin' find it
What's the story? Oh why you smiling?
Oh there's something called the truth, oh I'm begging you

Talk to me
Once in your life be real with me
Shh sugarcoated, taste like candy
Shh sugarcoated, taste like yummy candy
Say something
Yummy plastic, taste so sweet
Shh sugarcoated, taste like candy
Shh sugarcoated, taste like yummy candy
