

Fate

MANILA GREY

(North Bustin' Bangas)

I wanna see them switch
Turn fall back to defence
Deep down they know it's end game
When these 2 come in
They pull up and they fake
Cut 'em off give 'em blade
Destiny never changed
Meant to be call it Fate

Meant to be call it
Fate!
Destiny call it
Fate!
Cut 'em off give em blade
Meant to be call it

Midnight, heavy headlights
Deadly, think twice
Blame me, blame me for your heavy heart
Envy you holdin' in
As green as the bandos comin' in
As green as the Gandhi
Burning twins as clean as it gets
00 luck, 00 trust
What's the chances of Island Boys gettin' all the love
When we came in clutch
Made ya'll silent, ya'll chat way too much
Now they back in the shadows since I came for blood
(Sol!)

Meant to be call it
Fate!
Destiny call it
Fate!
Cut 'em off give em blade
Meant to be call it

The chase down
Now they in defence mode face down
Don't deny gave the Grey sound
Lost them in the waves
Drownin', drownin'
Advance money came in, count it
Keygen codes I found it
Kill 'em with silence
Move against the grain, all I hear complaints
I cannot change your ways, too lazy
Yeah the devil she wearing lace
Tryin' to take my heart away, she can't change me
They wanna see me switch, can't make me
Everything good my mood too rich I move too quick

Meant to be call it
Fate!
Destiny call it

Fate!
Cut 'em off give em blade
Meant to be call it

I wanna see them switch
(Fate, Fate, Fate, Fate)
I see them fall back to defence now
(They already chose)
I see them fall back to defence now
(They already chose)
They know we the chosen, chosen, chosen
I see them fall back to defence, yuh
(Swear to God we the chosen, chosen)
