

Right Back

MANILA GREY

(Runnin' right back)
Been a long day, been a long day
(Okay I'll call you back in 5)
I just need space I just need time to heal
And I won't lie, learned my mistakes
(Every time you come around yeah I love it)
Won't you keep it one way, keep it one way with me
(Trying to)
Too many times you want fighting (fighting)
Too many times you want war (damn)
Too many wrongs don't make right, yeah
(Can we do a little better?)
Too many wrongs don't make right, yeah
Fucked you over too many times yeah

With you I felt fire
With you I felt love, with you I felt love
Every time you felt broken
I picked you right up, picked you right up

I reminisce the good times
I think about us, think about us
(Like what about us)
Damn, if ever you leave I'ma need you right back

I'ma need you right back (need you right back)
Need you right back
I need you right back
I need you right back (I need you right back)

Need you right back
I need you right back
I need you right back (I need you right back)

Need you right back
I'ma need you right back
I'ma need you right back (I need you right back)
Need you right back

1 in the morning I'm flying in
2 in the morning I'm on my way (on my way)
3 in the morning I'm diving in (Sex so good like we still friends)
4 in the morning you going crazy
Back and forth with the arguments
(She don't even know my government)
5 am we give it another chance
Watching the sunrise with you my love
(Watching this life fly with you my love)
And if we ever let go

I'ma need you right back (need you right back)
Need you right back
I need you right back
I need you right back (I need you right back)

Need you right back

I need you right back
I need you right back (I need you right back)

Need you right back
I'ma need you right back
I'ma need you right back (I need you right back)
Need you right back

With you I felt fire
With you I felt love, with you I felt love
Every time you felt broken
I picked you right up, picked you right up

I reminisce the good times
I think about us, think about us
(What about us)
Damn, if ever you leave I'ma need you right back

Lose the attitude
Don't trip I ain't mad at you
