

Worlds Apart

MANILA GREY

If we run into eternity tonight
Into the next lifetime
Would you recognize me?
Would you recognize me?

If we ran into each other in the light
Into the next lifetime
Would you recognize me?
Would you recognize me?

Worlds apart
Feeling like we worlds apart
I search for you and your heart
Check—I'm looking for the moment
Trying to see you in the morning now I (see you in the...)
Slowly get reminded (get reminded)
That I gotta find and get to know you again

You a different woman (different woman, different woman)
I swear I can't ever leave you behind (you behind)
Even with the world burning
I can only see the fire in your eyes

Baby, what's love?
If forever was a part of the cards
And death can't do us apart
Tell me, what's love?
If I lose you beyond all the stars
But I find you—could we restart?

If we run into eternity tonight
Into the next lifetime
Would you recognize me?
Would you recognize me?

If we ran into each other in the light
Into the next lifetime
Would you recognize me?
Would you recognize me?
(Recognize me)

Worlds apart
Feeling like we worlds apart (feeling like we worlds apart)
I search for you and your heart

It's endlessly, endlessly you and me
Baby, what's love?
Eternity, eternity you and me
Baby, what's love?

It's endlessly, endlessly you and me
Baby, what's love? (Baby, what's love?)
Tell me, what's love? (What's love?)
Tell me, what's love? (What's love?)

If we run into eternity tonight
Into the next lifetime

Would you recognize me?
Would you recognize me?
(Would you recognize me? Would you?)
If we ran into each other in the light
Into the next lifetime
Would you recognize me? (would you recognize)
Would you recognize me?

Worlds apart
Feeling like we worlds apart (feeling like we worlds apart)
I search for you and your heart

Your warm embrace
This love can't wait
I count the days
'Til I see your face
This love I'll chase through time and space

Your warm embrace
This love can't wait
When the sunset fades
All the nights replay when I close my eyes
It's you I see in my next life

Your warm embrace
This love can't wait
I count the days
