

Another World

Mankind Is Obsolete

Born out of control
Almost every day
The weak put up a wall
So that they won't be blown away
Fill this empty vessel
This empty vessel
Fill this empty vessel
Before it ends too late

Another world waits for its prey today

Matrimony with a gun
Yeah, throw it away
Tales of hope seem like a dream
Sugar for another day
You'd better double check it
Double check it
Before it ends.
Too Late.

Another world waits for its prey today.
