

Split Me Open

Mannequin Pussy

Split me open
Pour your love in me
Oh, it's been awhile since I've had a company
Oh, it's been awhile since someone touched me
Oh, it's been awhile

My body's a temple
It was built for you
To do all the things you dreamed you'd do
With someone who deeply wants you
With someone

I'm worried I want you
With the power
Of a thousand suns burning as one
With someone

Oh, it's not the time
Oh, it's not the place
I'm asking for time
I'm begging for space

Oh, it's not the time
Oh, it's not the place
I'm asking for time
I'm begging for space

'Cause nothing's gonna change, nothing's gonna change
Nothing's gonna change, nothing's gonna change
Nothing's gonna change, nothing's gonna change
Nothing's gonna change, nothing's gonna change
Nothing's gonna change, nothing's gonna change
Nothing's gonna

Oh, it's not the time
Oh, it's not the place
I'm asking for time
I'm begging for space
