

The Hunter

Mantra

The ritual happens tonight
Shadows are claiming the ground
Pulling me to my end
Prepare myself
There's only one way this ends tonight

I stand here, forsaken
The crossroads calling me
I wander through changes
The hunter in the dark

The circle is dancing again
Hunger is back in their eyes
They belong to the void
Deliver back
There's only one way this ends tonight

I stand here, forsaken
The crossroads calling me
I wander through changes
The hunter in the dark

I stand here, forsaken
The crossroads calling me
I wander through changes
The hunter in the dark
