Impossible

Måns Zelmerlöw

These are the days when I can't forgive myself
Seeing those picture of you with someone else
I wish you were here to turn darkness into light
If you were here, tonight

I'd find a million ways to say I love you
Sing a million songs to make you smile
But I can't turn back time
And I can't make you mine
It's impossible

Don't ever think that I'm proud of what I've done
What we had in common, now it's gone

I'd find a million ways to say I love you
Sing a million songs to make you smile
But I can't turn back time
And I can't make you mine
It's impossible

It's impossible to bring you back
And even if I try to turn your heart
it's impossible to turn back time
It's impossible

(To even think that you would look my way)
To even think that you would look my way
(I know I only have myself to blame)
I know I only have myself to blame
I can try, but I still can't make you mine

I'd find a million ways to say I love you
Sing a million songs to make you smile
But I can't turn back time
And I can't make you mine
It's impossible

It's impossible to bring you back
And even if I try to turn your heart
It's impossible to turn back time
It's impossible

(To even think that you would look my way)
To even think that you would look my way
(I know I only have myself to blame)
I know I only have myself to blame
I can try, but I still can't make you mine

(To even think that you would look my way)
Can't make you mine
(I know I only have myself to blame)
Can't make you mine
I could try but I still can't make you mine
