

Round Round

Måns Zelmerlöw

I'm standing where you left me
Right here where you said goodbye
I'm frozen and I can't get out
Hope I didn't hear it right

My heart is getting heavy
That house we built is burning down
Crashing down

You cut me into pieces
Pulling out my stitches
But I don't really need them
I think it's time to turn it round
So when you come back running
To what you really wanted
I won't be there waiting
'Cause it's your game I been playing

Round round, going back around round
I will take you down, down 'cause you're too late
I'll throw your kisses away, away, away
Throw your kisses away, away, away
Throw your kisses away

It's different now we taste it
We've been sleeping in your bed of lies
The final straw for you went down
It's funny how it all turned out

The sheets are getting twisted
I will never miss it
I won't be there waiting
'Cause it's your game I been playing

And it's heartbreaking that I'm the heartbreaker
But you're giving me the reason
Is it what you wanted now?

A spell of you, 'cause this is what you do
Can you see it in the headlights?
This is what it feels like
