

This Ones for You

Måns Zelmerlöw

Something I must do
Breathe into a fresh redemption
Wish I only knew
Every bittersweet expression

There's a sun in bloom
And it hides my hesitation
But it's time I'm true
To the part of me awakened

Pages born to be
Biography
Can soon begin

Underneath my skin
It's written in gold
It waits to be spoken, it waits to be told
So here's the truth
I've only begun
If you'll let me sing every word to be sung
This one's for you

This one's for you

Guess the time has come
To unveil a new perspective
Let the fight be won
In between the lines of message

And though I'm scared to see
What comes of me
I won't give in

Underneath my skin
It's written in gold
It waits to be spoken, it waits to be told
So here's the truth
I've only begun
If you'll let me sing every word to be sung
This one's for you

This one's for you

Let me in
Past the borderline
Where I can hold my own
Let these wings
Metamorphasize
So they can fly me home
Fly me home

Underneath my skin
It's written in gold
It waits to be spoken, it waits to be told
So here's the truth
I've only begun
If you'll let me sing every word to be sung

This one's for you

This one's for you

This one's for you
