Mansionair

You see the sign that something's gone astray
And I've been hiding from it, but here I wait
It's time I try be honest, before it's too late
Caught by the ambush slowly, end up in flames

You turn away and I'm stalling
I'm pulling you closer, in my orbit
The world awaits and I'm calling
I see you in motion, in my orbit

In my orbit
In my orbit

I'm drifting weightless waiting to break my fall
The taste of grace is numbing, it's chemical
This time it's you I promise, it won't be long
Till I can take the onus, within my arms

You turn away and I'm stalling
I'm pulling you closer, in my orbit
The world awaits and I'm calling
I see you in motion, in my orbit

You turn away and I'm stalling
I'm pulling you closer, in my orbit
The world awaits and I'm calling
I see you in motion, in my orbit

In my orbit

You turn away and I'm stalling
I'm pulling you closer, in my orbit
The world awaits and I'm calling
I see you in motion, in my orbit

In my orbit
