

Intuneric IV

Manticora

I've been given an offer by the gypsies - to become one of them . I already feel a bond I can't explain, so I can't see a reason to turn them down. It's as if I'm losing my sanity, but gaining so much more instead. They discovered me an evening, while I saw something I was not supposed to see. It was a secret meeting that took place in the big tent of the gypsy that bends minds. I have been invited to the next meeting by the Romany. They call it the Daily Summoning... the Daily Gathering. At midnight , when the circus is empty and the people are gone... This is so exciting.
