

Dance Clarence Dance

Marble Sounds

We can't control the situation
It takes its toll when luck's involved
And I prefer low expectations
Over false hopes

You aren't short of inspiration
Since you got on your train of thought
While we can choose our destination
Destiny's unknown

Now you should do
What you couldn't do
Come on, finalize
It takes a little more

And when you can,
Clarence, do your dance
And hit the night
It doesn't take much more

Don't change your mind when under pressure
Don't take advice 'bout what to do
Whatever may break down your barriers
Keep it close to you

They need your name (to give you credit)
They'll take your soul (and keep control)
They'll clear your head (and press reset when everything must go)

Now you should do
What you couldn't do
Come on, finalize
It takes a little more

And when you can,
Clarence, do your dance
And hit the night
It doesn't take much more

Sure
I can be moved
It's in a tune
In every sigh
It's often right
But ever true
It's ever true

Now you should do
What you couldn't do
Come on, finalize
It takes a little more

And when you can,
Clarence, do your dance
And hit the night

Now you should do
What you couldn't do
Come on, finalize

And when you can,
Clarence, do your dance
And hit the night
