

A Lovely Life To Live

Marc Almond

Black clouds always hanging over me
If only I could see through the grey
So much sadness, too many tears
Since you left it's been that way

I go outside, the sun is shining
(La-la-la-la)
But I'm stuck inside in the gloom
(La-la-la-la)

Curtains drawn, alone and forlorn
(La-la-la-la)
(Ah-ah-ah)
In the shadows of my room

For it's a lovely life to live
If only could believe it's true
And it's a lovely life, lovely life
But what's the point? I'm not with you
And it's a lovely life to live (Lovely life)
If only I could be with you

Friends they're always calling round to see
If I'll come out to a party or two
They say I'm missing out on the good times
But what's the point? I'm not with you

One day I will awake from my sorrows
(La-la-la-la)
And though I won't forget, I'll forgive
(La-la-la-la)

And realise there's better tomorrows
(La-la-la-la)
And it's a lovely life to live
(Ah-ah-ah)

And it's a lovely life to live
If only could believe it's true
(Ah-ah-ah-ah)
And it's a lovely life, lovely life
But what's the point? I'm not with you
(Ah-ah-ah-ah)
And it's a lovely life to live (Lovely life)
If only I could be with you
(Ah-ah-ah)

And it's a lovely life to live
If only could believe it's true
(Ah-ah-ah-ah)
And it's a lovely life, lovely life
But what's the point? I'm not with you
(Ah-ah-ah)

And it's a lovely life to live (Lovely life)
If only I could believe it's true
(Ah-ah-ah-ah)

And it's a lovely life, lovely life
(Ah-ah-ah)
If only I could be with you

If only
I could be
I could be with
Be with you
