

Chain Lightning

Marc Almond

Sometimes when I'm thinkin' that love's not around
My heart begins sinkin', I don't hear a sound
And the world is in blackness, no light shines on me
I suffer no blindness, no one can I see
Then a flash from the heavens like a loud jagged wire
And the silence is broken, and the night is on fire

It's like chain lightning, this love that I feel
Who knows where it strikes or when it will hit
How long it will last, or when it will quit

In the forest I'm burning, struck down by the blast
The fever is churning, and the heat rises fast
And those standing nearest can show their concern
But I swear if they touch me that they too will burn
They fear for their lives for death will soon dwell
In the warmth of your love is the fire of hell

It's like chain lightning, this love that I feel
Who knows where it strikes or when it will hit
How long it will last, or when it will quit

And soon the sparks scatter and wind whips the flame
And love soon will shatter what it cannot tame
And the cycle continues, from life into dust
For I am now in you with the fire of lust
And I hear the explosion, of thunder and rain
The water is falling, the ashes remain

It's like chain lightning, this love that I feel
Who knows where it strikes or when it will hit
How long it will last, or when it will quit

The Indians tell us that the phoenix will rise
From the smoldering ashes that once were my eyes
And watch beautiful colours from black and from grey
Be formed into wings and take me away
Where evil is darkness and goodness is light
And love is the lightning that cuts through the night
And strikes only once in a dark place in time
And forms a gold stairway that all of us climb
