

Demon Lover

Marc Almond

Bluer than the bluest blue
That's the way I think of you
Deeper than the deepest sea
In your eyes when you look at me

And you're sadder than the saddest song
Where the melody's gone wrong
And yours taller than the tallest tree
Climb up to the top with me
And come with me right now
To eternity

And, we're falling free
Just keep your eyes on me
Blind you with the mystery
I'll be your demon lover

And, we're falling free
Just keep your eyes on me
Blind you with the mystery
I'll be your demon lover

Harder than the hardest heart
Words that hurt right from the start
Bitter than the bitterest pill
Will give you everlasting thrills

And you're bluer than the bluest blue
I feel your sadness through and through
So let's climb up to the mountain ledge and
Take a step towards the edge
Come away with me right now
To eternity

And, we're falling free
Just keep your eyes on me
Blind you with the mystery
I'll be your demon lover

And, we're falling free
Just keep your eyes on me
Blind you with the mystery
I'll be your demon lover
