

Minotaur

Marc Almond

You're, you're, you're mine
You're mine, mine
Minotaur

Mirror, mirror on the wall
You, you can't see it all
Look at you, you growing old
My minotaur

All the cages in the world
Can't contained the rages on
The minotaur

Crushing around the floor
Braking down the door
Feel holes, the beating hearts, deep in the sewerage breaths
I'll take the test and face the minotaur

I hear you breathing fast now
I'm milling in your grass now
Now you're in y dreams
Can't you hear the screams

Madness at my shoulder
Slowly taking over, taking over, taking over
And suddenly I'm turning blue
All my bones are braking throw
And it's all because of you
And the things you do to me

Braking down the door
Doctor checking, now you standing by my side
Now you breathing in my ear
But it's only while I'm here

Ooh, ooh
My minotaur
Mine, mine, mine, mine
My minotaur
Crushing around the floor
Mine, mine, mine, mine
My minotaur
Braking down the door
