

Sequins And Stars

Marc Almond

Sequins and stars in your eyes
Shine in the light
Sparkle with love
With dreams from above
Sequins and stars fall like the tears
Tears in the night
Without the light of your love
I die without the love

Is it to God or the devil I prayed
Is it heaven or hell where dreams are made
For sometimes they shine
And sometimes they fade
For dreams are like sequins and stars

Sequins and stars in your eyes
They hypnotise
Make me go blind
From the pleasure I find
Sequins and stars reflect in the rain
Alone in the night
I'm dreaming again of your love
I'm dying, I'm dying without your love

Is it to God or the devil I prayed
Is it heaven or hell where dreams are made
For sometimes they shine
And sometimes they fade
For dreams are like sequins and stars

As long as you love me
As long as you dare
My heart is a flame for the dreams that we share
Pray that your fire never flickers and dies
Like the sequins and stars in your eyes
Like the sequins and stars
I'll die in your arms
Dreaming of sequins and stars
