

Siren

Marc Almond

I sat alone upon the seashore
Only I can hear the sirens
Phantom voices calling me home
Like day dawning in my heart
A lullaby upon the sea breeze

Siren, siren
Soft words in my ear, only I can hear
Siren, siren
Like a warning day is dawning in my heart
In my heart

And I dance upon the seashore
Feeling somehow I've been here before
And though the light is growing darker
Somehow there's sunlight on the way
Listen deep into the sea-shell

Siren, siren
Soft words in my ear, only I can hear
Siren, siren
Like a warning day is dawning in my heart
In my heart
