

Don't Be Afraid to Call Me

Marc Broussard

I had a friend that used to call me all the time
Then he didn't, I don't know why
Where we went wrong
It's been too long

The other day I thought I heard your name
So familiar, somehow so strange
Can't make new old friends
My door is open always

Don't be afraid to call me
No matter how long it's been
You don't need no reason to call me
Just know I'll be there in the end

Back in the day we'd run this town
We had each other when trouble came around
Whiskey and rye
Until we die

Then the storm came rolling in
You left, just like the wind
A Butch without Sundance
I lost my right hand man

Don't be afraid to call me
No matter how long it's been
No you don't need no reason to call me
You know I'll be there in the end

So don't be afraid to call me
No matter how long it's been
No you don't need no reason to call me
You know I'll be there in the end

Don't be afraid to call me
No matter how long it's been
No you don't need no reason to call me
'Cause you know I'll be there in the end

Oh you know I'll be there in the end

Oh you know I'll be there in the end
