

Memory of You

Marc Broussard

Even though I know you're gone
I can't quit holding on Lord knows you couldn't stay
But I found another way
To keep you here

Laying down with the memory, just the memory of you
See you now in the revelry and it's heavenly ooh
Just a faded kiss upon my lips that tastes so bittersweet
Laying down with a memory cos I'll never meet another one like
you
Another one like you

Silence fills this empty room
I long for the sound of you
And I'm living with your ghost
I'd lie just to keep you close
Keep you here

Laying down with the memory, just the memory of you
See you now in the revelry and it's heavenly ooh
Just a faded kiss upon my lips that tastes so bittersweet
Laying down with a memory cos I'll never meet another one like
you
Another one like you

Silence fills this empty room
I long for the sound

Laying down with the memory, just the memory of you
See you now in the revelry and it's heavenly ooh
Just a faded kiss upon my lips that tastes so bittersweet
Laying down with the memory, cos I'll never meet Ooh laying down with a memory, just a memory of you
See you now in the revelry and it's heavenly ooh
Just a faded kiss upon my lips that tastes so bittersweet
Laying down with a memory cos I'll never meet another one like
you
Another one like you yeah
Another one like you
Another one like you
