

Cold

Marc E. Bassy

You got a hold on me
I'm talking to myself
Do you notice me
Cause I don't see no one else
Girl, don't go cold on me
That's gon' be hazard for your health
Did I break your heart
Pushed you to someone else
Don't go cold on me
Cold on me
Cold on, cold on

There you go calling me crazy
That's someone else's job
You tell me that he's been lazy
Like somehow that's my fault
You know you gon' have my baby
And you know that somewhere inside I'm saving

You got a hold on me
I'm talking to myself
Do you notice me
Cause I don't see no one else
Girl, don't go cold on me
That's gon' be hazard for your health
Did I break your heart
Pushed you to someone else
Don't go cold on me
Cold on me
Cold on, cold on

I can't help it, you're my favorite
I want you all the time
They stay on my line
I don't know why I pick up

I'm not the one, you're not the one
We fell in love, that wasn't love
We had fun, now we're done
But you're still on my mind

Girl, you don't gotta stay you love me, cause I know you do
It's been awhile since the last time I saw you
I should've never let you leave my bedroom
Baby, you're cooler than cool (ice cold)

So won't you smile for me, baby
How can I forget the day I found my baby
Now every once in a while you call me up
And we start this whole thing all over again

You got a hold on me
I'm talking to myself
Do you notice me
Cause I don't see no one else

Did I break your heart
Pushed you to someone else
Cold on me
