

February 7th.

Marc E. Bassy

Can't run forever
Chasing something better
Grass is always greener
Are we not together
I chose you, yeah
Do you choose me too?
That was my demeanor
Daydream like Aretha
Pressure in the speaker
Always on the re-up
I chose you, yeah
Do you choose me too, ohh

Let me fill your cup
Baby, we can make it if we don't give up
Ask you just another time, are we still love?
Take this to the top, I want to give you love and

Let me lean on you
Oh, you know we got nothing to lose
Oooh, you know that you cannot run
Forever babe, lover babe, holding on to
Something that's standing right in front of you
Ever babe, lover babe, I'm stay true
Ever babe, ever babe, standing by you

Can't be young forever
We forever young tho
How we deal with pressure
And the way your skin glows
When your mind's on fire
I'll go through the wire
I'll go get the coffee
You go trim the flowers
Never have I ever just kicked it like this for hours
Knowing time isn't wasted
When we make it ours
Met in Carolina
Where my daddy grew up
Now he's looking at me like
"Baby boy, don't you screw up"

Let me fill your cup
Baby, we can make it if we don't give up
Ask you just another time, are we still love?
Take this to the top, I want to give you love and

Let me lean on you
Oh, you know we got nothing to lose
Oooh, you know that you cannot run
Forever babe, lover babe, holding on to
Something that's standing right in front of you
Ever babe, lover babe, I'm stay true
Ever babe, ever babe, standing by you
Forever babe, lover babe, holding on to
Something that's standing right in front of you
Ever babe, ever babe, I'm stay true

Ever babe, lover babe, standing by you

Every day with you, I'm down
Don't be afraid, don't have no doubts
Forever babe, lover babe, holding on to
Something that's standing right in front of you
Ever babe, lover babe, I'm stay true
Ever babe, ever babe, standing by you
Forever babe, lover babe, holding on to
Something that's standing right in front of you
Ever babe, lover babe, I'm stay true
Ever babe, ever babe, standing by you

Standing right there
