

Free Like Me

Marc E. Bassy

(Know by now)
(Yea you gotta know by now)

Ohhh baby, please don't change for me
Met you in ripped up jeans
You just turned 23
There was something about our chemistry
Fits so perfectly
But I was blind to see

You want to be free just like me
Free just like me
You were my mirror, that's the reflection I see
You want to be free just like me
Free just like me
You were my mirror, that's the reflection I see
I see

Hey this time I can't look nowhere else
It was just me and myself
I left you on the shelf
Nights alone, I'm gone have to sweat it out
No one to comfort me
You knocked me to my knees
Swear I can't believe

She want to be free just like me
Free just like me
You were my mirror, that's the reflection I see
She want to be free just like me
Free just like me
You were my mirror, that's the reflection I see
I see

Free got the ghost of your past in your ashtray
Free like you running by city skylines in the fast lane
And yea you got a freaky heart, it's crazy
Your mother look like Ms. 1980
(Yes she do, yes she do)
Yea you gotta know by now
Yea you gotta know by now

She want to be free just like me
Free just like me
You were my mirror, that's the reflection I see
She want to be free just like me
Free just like me
You were my mirror, that's the reflection I see
I see
