

Having Fun

Marc E. Bassy

Maybe you're lyin'
Maybe the truth don't tell itself
What you supplyin'
He's just gon' put that on his shelf
Maybe it's good times
Maybe it's better left unsaid
Girl I don't know it
How does this get into your head

So I wonder if we're all still, having fun
Driftin' all around just, wave to wave
And I wonder if we're all still having fun
Can't remember nothin', ain't slept in days

Baby you lookin'
Like you the best thing in this room
But you not know when
That it will all be over soon
And when you close your eyes
You're a world away
In the eye of a hurricane
We gon' turn up tonight
Gettin' work today
Fuck all them bills to pay

So I wonder if we're all still, having fun
Driftin' all around just, wave to wave
And I wonder if we're all still having fun
Can't remember nothin', ain't slept in days

[?] I'll be settlin' in 'til the summer
Without your face
Tall shades like a drummer
Was it all a waste

Maybe we'll smile for the picture
Sweet drink for the chase
We were holy like scripture
We'll never be replaced
But I wonder
If I'm still shining
With the gold chain and a pinky ring blindin'
LA high rises anything goes
Traded in love for a shot at your goals

So I wonder if we're all still having fun
Driftin' all around just, wave to wave
And I wonder if we're all still having fun
Can't remember nothing, ain't slept in days
