

Hurricane

Marc E. Bassy

In the eye of a hurricane
Yeah, the world is such a dirty game
Can we stay for another day?
In the eye of a hurricane
Watch you dance in the purple rain
Numb the pain like it's Novocaine
Can we stay for another day?
In the eye of a hurricane

I don't wanna make your hands tied up
Unless that's the way that you get fired up
Baby if you freaky, let me slide up
On you and I'm worshiping your body with your thighs up
Usually I'm prude, it's just music
But something about you girl it make me lose it
A million times and one I would choose it
Nothing guarantee thoughts baby let me prove it
These days and times
Trying to carry the weight I try
We high on our own supply
You know the deal trying to get you out your mind

In the eye of a hurricane
Yeah, the world is such a dirty game
Can we stay for another day?
In the eye of a hurricane
Watch you dance in the purple rain
Numb the pain like it's Novocaine
Can we stay for another day?
In the eye of a hurricane

God damn my love what have you done
The solar system can't move without the Sun
You took the gravity away it weighs a ton
You had a baby on the way I didn't run
I got my daughter in my arms, and the record on Thinking this the one that's gon' bring her a fortune
Man makes plans, and pops probably rolling over
Borderline we were living in your roller-coaster
Knowing down deep you a pure soul living tortured
All I wanna do is fucking be there for you in the morning
But it's hell and really storming, and it's bigger than me now
Never good with boundaries I just tough it out when in doubt
Grin and bite my lip, in the whip, I'm slapping Nip
Thinking this the fucking moment when you find out who you with...man and wh ose with you
We're isolated in your manic moods
All my friends looking at me, "Damn, why did you leave the crew?"
Baby if they only knew
The prison of your mind...forgive you for entrapping me though...pressure ma de a diamond
Silver lining I'm aligned with Blessings and it's perfect timing
This is for my baby though
Your daddy's home to calm the crying
