

Lost In Translation

Marc E. Bassy

Met her on tour in Asia, lost in translation
Scarlett, she was blonded, babe
Ooh, a vibe couldn't be lastin'
Timezone too taxin'
Runways everlastin', babe
Oh, I see you flyin' first and she flyin' private
Said she had the points, knew she had the mileage
If I try to judge her, God strike me down
Nothing's ever different on this side of town

Young and bright, she's open minded, let it slide
Yeah, babe
Yeah, gone our separate ways, meet someday on the other side
Yeah

Tell me who else gon' love you like me, love you like me
So now tell me who else gon' love you like me, love you like me
And now who gon' do your body like me, body like me?
And now who gon' do your body like me, body like me?

Ooh, Sunset on the strip (Strip, baby)
Eighties baby, I'm lit (Lit, baby)
Someone watchin' your daughter, girl
'Cause you bitin' all on your lip
Vegas bound in a whip
Girls trip for a trick
He can pay for that fee, baby, that sex work legit
How I'm gon' be mad, girl? I knew, babe
Everything I did was comin' to you

Young and righteous, you the finest I'll ever find (Goddamn it)
Goin' separate ways, meet someday on the other side

So now tell me, who else gon' love you like me? (Love you like me)
And now tell me, who else gon' love you like me, love you like me?
And who gon' do your body like me, body like me?
And now who gon' do your body like me?
Yeah, yeah

Tell me, who else gon' love you like me, love you like me?
Now tell me, who else gon' love you like me, love you like me?
(Who else? Who else? Who else?)
(Who else? Who else? Who else?)
