

Morning Mercy

Marc E. Bassy

I never really mind, a little bit of rain
I like how it sounds
It's good for the brain
And when I'm feeling down, it washes out the pain
Disguises is my tears, it makes me a hero baby

Morning mercy, please forgive me
Thank my angels, hope they're with me
Baby if I'm looking, birds eye
That's the only time, that I let time fly by Morning mercy, trying to be famous
But it ain't gone be too long 'til we're all just nameless
Fortified in my ambition
I was down, head in the ground, momma's was in the kitchen so

I never really mind, a little bit of rain
I like how it sounds
It's good for the brain
And when I'm feeling down, it washes out the pain
The skies is my tears, it makes me a hero baby

I never really mind, a little bit of rain
I like how it sounds
It's good for the brain
And when I'm feeling down, it washes out the pain
Disguises my tears
It makes me a hero baby
