

No Perfect Time

Marc E. Bassy

I picked you flowers on your birthday
It's not like me at all
I walked in you're standing with a bouquet
It could've been a wedding shawl
So I wait until your fling blows over, over
Just to find somebody new
Then you come and lay your head on my shoulder
Every single time that you're blue
It's nothing new

When I'm stronger, stay longer
She came out was a goner
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time
It's all in your mind
It's not midnight, it's not sunset
It's someday it hasn't come yet
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time

I never care about reputations
You brought my ego back
Hung out for hours by my doorway
Like there was some strings attached
When I finally said I was committed
Been too long for you to recognize
Ooo you couldn't even come to visit
Wonder if we'll ever realize

When I'm stronger, stay longer
She came out was a goner
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time
It's all in your mind
It's not midnight, it's not sunset
It's someday it hasn't come yet
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time

A jealous game I played with you
The day we met we broke the rules
I claim you girl a game for fools
You played me out I had to choose
Dragged you through the mud I guess
You broke my heart it must make sense
You sensed it girl you had to know
Where does it end I'll never know

When I'm stronger, stay longer
She came out was a goner
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time
It's all in your mind
It's not midnight, it's not sunset
It's someday it hasn't come yet
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time

Yea it's all in your mind
It's not midnight, it's not sunset
There's no perfect, there's no perfect time
It's not midnight, it's not sunset
