So Simple

Marc E. Bassy

When I was broke girl, we wasn't rocking
But to tell the truth girl, that didn't stop me
Said you wanted to get the Wraith, Imma cop that Now we be picking up every time you drop that
And your next dude, you know I'mma top that
And she wanna come back, She wanna come back to me
Now she wanna come back she wanna come back to me

But she don't fly my way
Unless I'm on PJ
That gossip, all you say
My baby you got so LA
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple

When I got on girl, you didn't trust me
But to tell you the truth girl, that didn't bug me
You came to my party, with your young socialite
I slid a couple 'cause I was cold as ice
Then the next morining you gon' tell me you love me
Now she wanna come back
She wanna come back to me
Now she wanna come back
Now she wanna come back to me

But she don't fly my way
Unless I'm on PJ
That gossip, all you say
My baby you got so LA
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple

She's so simple
She's so cliché
She's so gossip
She say, he say
She wants me back, says that each day
But I don't repeat, and I don't replay
She moved to Weho, now that's where she stay
Went up on weekday, she f– the DJ
She won't fly my way, unless I'm on PJ
She lied to me, I would die before I betray
Anyone I love most, Anyone I hold close
Sniffing all her love up, OD off of one dose
One shot, play me, I become ghost
You could be the prettiest, but ugly when it's up close
Used to be my type, now I'm off those Driving through the city full of lost souls
Just be careful look out for the potholes
But now I know how to spot those

But she don't drive my car, unless I'm on a boulevard
That vintage fits you good

You getting known in Hollywood (hey)
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple (I can't believe it)
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple (yeah)

You getting known in Hollywood (hey)
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple like that
Can't believe you're so simple (yeah)
