

Thinking Too Much

Marc E. Bassy

Back when you were mine, you were really, really mine, mine, mine
You were jealous then, but you'd bring a friend at the same damn time
You a bad girl, but somehow, it was good for me
It's a mad world, now you're gone and look at me
(I've been thinking too much)
And when I'm riding through my town now
Everything I see reminds me
Of you on that billboard on Sunset in my high beams
Crazy girls where it drives me
Eighty-five for the time piece
Vegas-girl, you on Instagram and you feeling lucky
(I've been thinking too much)

All in my
All in my head, I can't handle
(I've been thinking too much)
Fall in love
Falling is something I can't do
(I've been thinking too much)

We need to talk if it's causing you grief
Or you should just set us free
We used to have all this good energy
Until you started questioning me
(I've been thinking too much)
Now we don't talk anymore, I don't sleep
I just picture you out in these streets
(I've been thinking too much)

Think I need a shot of Henny
Just to take a little weight off
We were more than plenty
But not enough for it to pay off
Do you want it, really?
'Cause I'ma need you to say something
(I've been thinking too much)

All in my
All in my head, I can't handle
(I've been thinking too much)
Fall in love
Falling is something I can't do
(I've been thinking too much)

All of this talking and carrying on
All of these late nights, girl
Never alone (I've been thinking too much)
Spinning my wheels
Tell me where I'm going
I get the chills (I've been thinking too much)

Think I need a shot of Henny
Just to take a little weight off
We were more than plenty
But not enough for it to pay off
Do you want it, really?
'Cause I'ma need you to say something

(I've been thinking too much)

All in my
All in my head, I can't handle
(I've been thinking too much)
Fall in love
Falling is something I can't do

Spinning my wheels
Tell me where I'm going
I get the chills
(I've been thinking too much)
