Getting to the age where
I just hate the things I know
How do I end up in all the places that I go?
Why do I get insecure and make you feel alone?
You been on my mind
Too much on my mind
And do-overs on time don't exist but...

There's no denying
No denying
No denying
No denying I love you

There's no denying
No denying
No denying
No denying I love you

No I cannot deny
These tears that's falling from my eyes
I try, I-I but I can't lie
Light years they're fast like shooting stars
But you are so bright that I still see you shine
Yeah they got street and boulevards
This one from underground though
This my underground flow
Introspective
I'm really just a Cali boy that got connected
Thank God for keeping me alive the nights that I was reckless
And I debated really should I ever say this
All them love songs I wrote about you wouldn't make the playlist now

There's no denying
No denying
No denying
No denying I love you

There's no denying
No denying
No denying
No denying I love you

How do I end up in all the places that I go?
Why do I get insecure and make you feel alone?
