

All the words I never said
Turn to voices in my head
All the signs I should've read
Ooh, they turn to voices in my head
(I hear voices, I hear, I hear)

Ooh, I hear voices hoping for a change
Made a killing off of little mistakes
Heard you found the right one to hear you sing
Girl, you know it always pours when it rains, so
Are you bored? Then why am I still calling? (Still calling)
Always asking why we ever stopped talking (stopped talking)
So quick to look at him and say you're all in
Are you sure that this is everything you wanted?

All the words I never said
Turn to voices in my head (oh)
All the sings I should've read
Ooh, they turn to voices in my head
(I hear voices, I hear, I hear)

They say I was never in it with my intentions (intentions)
According to everyone that you mentioned (mentioned)
I wonder if it ever was a question (question)
And I always wanted more than a friendship
Oh, sometimes I think I'm on an island
Push up close and it's supposed to get quiet
Back and forth 'cause I know you'll never buy it (no, no)
But it's hard when my heart is on fire (oh)

I hear screaming and it's so unfair (so unfair)
'Cause no one else but you compare (ooh)
And if I'm only halfway there (oh, no)
Show me why you fail to care (I hear voices, I hear, I hear)

All the words I never said
Turn to voices in my head (oh)
All the signs I should've read
Ooh, they turn to voices in my head
(I hear voices, I hear, I hear)
All the words I never said
Turn to voices in my head (oh)
And all the signs I should've read
Ooh, they turn to voices in my head
(I hear voices, I hear, I hear)

Turn to voices in my head (in my head)
Ooh, they turn to voices in my head (in my head)
